

I Honor It All

words and music: David Ault & Karen Drucker

I honor it all every season of my life.
I honor it all, the darkness and the light.
I honor it all every season of my life.
I honor it all. I honor it all.

I honor it all every feeling that I feel.
I honor it all, things imagined and things real.
I honor the pain that caused my knees to kneel.
I honor it all. I honor it all.

Whatever it was that caused me so much fear.
Whatever the struggle I carried through my years.
Whomever it was behind the bitter tears.
I honor it all. I honor it all.

I honor it all every season of my life.
I honor it all, the darkness and the light.
I honor it all every season of my life.
I honor it all. I honor it all. I honor it all.
